

Second Course in Corporate Finance

Overview

This course discusses optimal strategic decision-making by applying the concepts discussed in the first course. The course maximizes the synergy between theory and practice. The more advanced tools and a deeper understanding of the valuation process in this course compared to the first course improve executives' corporate financial decision-making and provide value-creating tools of analysis for investors.

COURSE CONTENT

- 1. Financial distress and managerial incentives
- 2. Dividends policy and issues
- 3. Real options valuations
- 4. Raising equity capital and debt
- 5. Leasing
- 6. Working capital management
- 7. Mergers and acquisitions
- 8. Alternative investments
 - Private Equity
 - Hedge funds
 - Structured products
 - Real assets
 - Real estates
 - Commodities
- 9. Advanced capital budgeting and valuations